

Abstract Embargo

Full text of accepted abstracts will be made available to media registrants on Tuesday, April 14, 2020, two weeks before the content goes live to the public. Abstracts will be released to the public on April 28, 2020 at 4:30 p.m. EST. Researchers and presenters are free to discuss the content of their abstracts throughout this embargo period, but any abstract-related content may not be published until the abstracts are publically released online.

New data to be presented during sessions is embargoed until 6 a.m. on the presentation day.

Audio Recording, Video Recording and Photography

Journalists and members of the media may not share or republish slides, unpublished data, or presentation materials from press conferences or scientific presentations without explicit written permission from the presenter. Media members, along with all attendees, are expected and required to abide by any recording or photography requests made by a presenter in a scientific session. Photography and recording for personal and note-taking purposes is allowed, but is always welcome on the exhibit floor and in non-session spaces.

Exhibiting, Public Relations, Advertising, and Marketing

Exhibitors and individuals representing industry, advertising, and marketing or public relations firms will not be granted access to the press room at the ASGCT Annual Meeting.

No exceptions will be made to the following policies:

- Materials may not indicate ASGCT endorsement or use the ASGCT/Annual Meeting logo.
- Non-ASGCT news briefings or other media events are prohibited in meeting areas, including hotels, during the ASGCT Annual Meeting.
- Under no circumstances will contact information of registered press be made available.

Individuals, companies, organizations or institutions found in violation of these policies will have ASGCT Annual Meeting access revoked.
